

2nd Level Right Room Facts & Features

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th levels were designed as living quarters. Because of the Florida heat, the Keepers typically only stayed here during storms or as temporary quarters.

This room was designed to be a kitchen / eating area. There was a cook stove on the left inside the door. The chimney went up through the ceiling.

Note the assembly numbers up by the beams.